ARENA REPORT

Volume 1, Number 21

WORLD WRESTLING FEDERATION

Lakeland Civic Center

Lakeland, FL

Welcome to another edition of "Arena Report". I'd like to especially welcome those who are reading for the first time as they are numerous. As you can see by the above title, there was a change of plans as this was to be a look at three FCW shows but I found a Titan three ringer skedded for Lakeland. Besides this card, I also have reports on the 7/2 and 7/9 Orlando FCW shows, ramblings, reports from around the globe, and letters to the ed. I received a decent response on my letters request and I appreciate them all. I'll be running some of them in this issue so you still have about a week to jot me something for my Bash issue which comes out 7/28.

Which brings me to my future issues. The NWA will bring the Bash tour to Florida the last week of July. I was going to go to both Orlando and Tampa but I then found out that they are running St. Petersburg and not Tampa which is another half hour added onto an hour and fifteen minute drive. Since it's the same line up, I'm going to pass on the St. Pete card. After that it's onto Chicago and the UAWF Confab '89. I'm looking forward to meeting alot of new faces so I can match names with everyone and also can't wait to see the old friends too. The dates of that are August 11-13.

September will mark the one year anniversary of "Arena Report". Instead of marking this date with a poll or yearbook like other fan-zines, I will mark it with a price increase. I can see it coming, heel newsletter of the year. I will be raising my prices to 75¢ an issue. Think you can handle it? If you have a hard time figuring out how many issues you can get with whatever money you send, call Lanny Poffo. That increase will take affect September 1. I think it's still a bargain. "Some people say I have alot of ego. I don't have a problem with ego. I just have alot of pride. Come on Cheryl, let's go." WHAM! Uh oh, I just nailed Cheryl with an awesome clothesline. Back to being serious now. The reason for the increase should be obvious. This baby has been a money loser since day one but I knew that. I just knew that as I gained more subscribers, I would need to raise prices. And believe me, with this increase, all I'll be doing is breaking even. I do it for the fun, not for the cash. But for now, "Arena Report" is published twice per month and cost 50¢ an issue. There is a number at the top left hand corner of this page reminding you how many issues you have remaining. All renewals, reports, or letters may be sent to Ron Lemieux, 370 Lake Tahoe Ct. #102, Altamonte Springs, FL 32701. Sick of reading this drivel aren't you? Well than, let's go to the spring training city of the Detroit Tigers.

Opening Match

Tim Horner pinned Barry Horowitz in 15:57. Real good opener. These two always have decent matches. Horner came off the ropes, Barry dropped down and Tim faked jumping over him. When Horowitz got up, Horner grabbed him from behind, pushed him in the ropes and rolled him up.  $\frac{1}{2}$

2nd Match

Red Rooster downed Bad News Brown via count out in 8:07. No stalling or rest holds so it was pretty decent. Brown went to whip Taylor into the ring post but Terry reversed it and jumped back in to beat the count. **

3rd Match

Boris Zhukov beat Jim Powers in 10:56. Again, not a bad bout. I'm starting to wonder what's going on at this point. Powers missed a charge in the corner and Boris hits Jim with a clothesline to the back of the neck and pins him. * $\frac{1}{4}$

WWF Intercontinental Championship

Ultimate Warrior defeated Rick Rude via DQ in 13:54. This was a return bout with the stipulation that if Rude got counted out, he'd lose the belt. Tremendous heat. The crowd didn't sit down until the 5 minute mark. Another good match from these two. Warrior press slammed Rude and splashed him. Bobby Heenan ran in and ref Rick Hunter signalled for the bell. ***

5th Match

The Genius bored Paul Roma to death at 14:06. I thought after the exciting first half of the card that Vince might have lectured his boys on work rate. This match dissipated that notion. Roma came off the top rope with a flying body press which Poffo reversed. Horrible. -

6th Match

Rick Martel beat Tito Santana using the corner buckle for leverage at 2:00. I forgot to mention that earlier, they ran the same angle again where Tito gets jumped on his way to the ring and they postpone the match until later. They should have just went home. This sucked. No excuses for these two. Dud

WWF Tag Team Championship

Demolition retained their titles by defeating the Twin Towers in 13:34. Akeem got nailed with the night stick and Smash pinned him. Not as good as some of their other bouts. * $\frac{1}{2}$

Lakeland Notes

Attendance was 5,600 which is good considering the building only holds 8,000. A great building for wrestling too. I bet this place cranked when Florida was in it's prime... I forgot to mention that the intermission lasted 40 minutes as when Ultimate went nuts at the beginning of the bout, he tore up the microphone system and they had to get a portable one... They announced that Roddy Piper would be the new co-host of Prime Time Wrestling. He got a huge pop... Jerry Brisco seen walking through the crowd. He runs Florida for Titan... Tony Garea came out to help Tito when he got jumped. Garea must have been cursing about his ex-partner... They switch over to the Sundome in Tampa 8/12 with the same line up as Orlando 8/11 with the main being Savage-Beefcake. I won't be attending either of those shows as I'll be in Chi-Town... This crew was headed to Philly tomorrow night.... The first half of this card was better than any other half of a Titan show that I've attended. I was actually enjoying the card so much that I had to pinch myself to see if I was dreaming.

Florida Championship Wrestling

Sunday, July 9, 1989

Eddie Graham Sports Complex
Orlando, FL

Opening Match

Ron Slinker over Coconut Kid in 10:19. Slinker won it with a spinning kick. The only thing I remember about Ron is that he was on a "Battle of the Belts" show a few years ago. They are saying they brought him back in to watch Steve Keirn's back. What's wrong with it? $\frac{1}{2}$ *

2nd Match

Comrade Busich beat Rick Diamond in 6:41. A puerto rican russkie. Worst russian act I've ever seen. The Comrade won it with a Russian leg sweep. How fitting. -*

3rd Match

Ho Chi Wen downed TBS jobber Mike Awesome in 9:54. Mike Awesome is hardly that. I wonder if Wen is related to Phil Hickerson. Ho Chi won the bout using the sleeper. Dud

Florida Heavyweight Championship

Steve Keirn beat Kendall Windham to win the Florida title in 25:36. Well paced bout. About time Windham showed up as he no showed the last two weeks. Keirn had Kendall in the sleeper when Hump got on the apron. Windham gave Steve two elbows to the gut and went to come off the ropes, but he collided with Oliver and Keirn rolled him up for the title winning pin. **

Florida Tag Team Championship

Nasty Boys retained their Florida belts by beating the Playboys in 16:02. The Playboys are comprised of Jimmy Backlund (no more Jomo Kenya) and Brett Sawyer. If Brett keeps downing those brewskies, he'll look alot like a Playboy; Buddy Rose. Backlund had Saggs up for a suplex but Knobbs came in and punched Jimmy in the midsection enabling Saggs to fall on top for the pin. Juice city time as a post match brawl had Brian Knobbs get clocked with a chair and it was time for the FCW weekly juice fest. * Playboys get great heat and their witty too. There was a guy sitting behind me with his girlfriend. He was calling the heels queer and Backlund says, "Hey, that girl your with is a cheap date. All you have to do is get a can of dogfood and a box of milkbones and she'll be happy."

Orlando Notes

Attendance was a whopping 103... Itallian Stallion was here but he didn't work. Sure hope he wasn't looking for a job. He could make more money working at Burger King... Results from 7/2: 1) Ho Chi Wen beat Bill Mulkey in 6:51 with the sleeper. That's right. Mulkeymania was back for one night and 50 pounds heavier. 2) Brian Knobbs and Brett Sawyer went to a miserable 15 minute draw. Brett's first bout as hee so he had to get over that way and he used me as a target. He was leaning on the rail right in front of me and staring. I didn't give him any reaction but after thirty seconds of this I figured what the hell. I simply said, "Problem?". He replied, "Yeah, your breath stinks and your an asshole." When I got home I brushed my teeth. The asshole part, I don't know what to do. - for the match. 3) Jerry Saggs beat Brady Higgins with a clothesline in 6:53. Dud 4) The Nasties returned and defended their tag belts going to a double count out with Sawyer and Rick Diamond at 6:44. Great brawling in the ringside area.  $\frac{1}{2}$ 5) Steve Keirn & Al Perez downed Ho Chi Wen & Oliver Humperdink in 13:45. Keirn was to wrestle Manny Fernandez and Perez was to battle Windham but both no showed as did Jimmy Backlund. What a promotion. Hump used an object and Keirn bled like crazy. I have the bloody Windy City tee shirt to prove it. Perez stole the object and used it on the red haired whale carcass. Sir Ollie bled like a pig and suddenly the fans forgot who didn't show up. That's one thing about this group. If they have no shows, they try to make up for it with wild action. Crowd this night was a high 210.

Ramblings

Jake Roberts was released from prison earlier this week on a $10,000 bond. No wonder Jake was found guilty. They had Tully Blanchard and Brother Love serve as character witnesses. Tully, the man who's been in more bar brawls than every other wrestler put together.... Speaking of bar brawls, Kendall Windham had a bottle smashed in his face at a bar in Atlanta a few weeks back. He had a nasty scar to show for it. He did retaliate and word is, the other guy lost. NO lawsuit yet... Iron Sheik should be back in the NWA by the time you read this. It seems that lawyers threatened to sue TBS since they had no grounds to fire Sheik unlike Bob Orton. Wonderful, now we'll have Sheik being buried on all the TV main events. What a waste of space... Aren't you tired of seeing the New Zealand Militia on all the TV mains? I like Victory, and Morgan isn't the worst, but does anyone think they have a shot against the other face teams... You'll already have missed it if you didn't catch it by now. Entertainment Tonight had a segment scheduled on the wrestling war 7/17. Vince, Terry Funk, Ricky and Bonnie Steamboat were all interviewed. Even Ted Turner speaks. Should be interesting... Eddie Gilbert will be in Sting's corner for his match with Muta this Sunday. I look for a Gilbert heel turn on the Stinger... The FCW card 7/16 had a return Florida title match with Keirn vs. Kendall, Nasty Boys vs. Playboys, and Manny Fernandez vs. Lou Perez skedded. I'm taking the week off.. The NWA ran a Bash in Springfield drawing 1,000. Mostly the same bouts but Gilbert and Sullivan had the night off and Michael Hayes was missing in action. Rick Steiner wrestled Muta and The other birds wrestled the Midnights which left Dr. Death hanging around. Muta won with his feet on the ropes. Midnights won on a DQ. Sid Vicious won the two ring battle royal eliminating Dick Murdoch... Johnny Rodz beat Black Gordman in a Mexican Street Fight in Brooklyn 6/24 on a card featuring Rodz's students... Turn about is fair play. On the NBC affiliate here in Orlando, right before Vince's "A" show came on, an ad ran for the NWA Bash. Gotta love it... The Pennsylvania Athletic Commision has just about been abolished. The only thing left is the tax which is mainly what the Fed wanted rid of... I liked the angle on the Power Hour last night featuring the Birds and The Roadies in a cage with the SST running in, but we needed to see the bludgeoned Hawk's face. I'm sorry, but you need blood once in a while... Do you realize that when the Dynamic Dudes wrestle the Militia that three of the guys are former flag bearers for the Bushherders? Johnny Ace, Jack Victory, and Ripa Morgan. Maybe we can get Shane to go to flag bearer school... Lord Al Hays is getting my vote for worst announcer this year. Poor Tony Schiavone... The NWA cancelled the Bash date in Providence 7/9 as I was told no tickets were sold... Here's hoping that Davey Boy Smith, Jason the Terrible, Chris Benoit and the other Calgary babyfaces that were in that horrible crash make a quick recovery. The promotion had to temporarily shut down due to no wrestlers on the good side.

1) Tim Horner beat Boris Zhukov in 11:35 when he gave the nasty Russkie a sunset flip in the corner. D★ 2) Dusty Rhodes returned (?) to Wheeling and beat Ted DiBiase in 9:20. Fans ate Dusty up. Rhodes went after Virgil and Ted charged but the "Nightmare" ducked, Ted clocked Virgil and Dust rolled up "Brother" Million. D★ 3) Rockin Robin bulldogged Judy Martin at 8:26. D 4) Brutus Beefcake upended Greg Valentine in 16:16 with Garvin as ref. Greg tried but John finally has seen the light (With counselling from Bro Love.) Bruti sucks. D★ 5) Hercules beat Dino Bravo on a reversed decision at 7:53. Dino had used the ropes to score the pinfall but Garvin came down to explain to the other official what had transpired. C- 6) Fabulous Rougeaus beat The Rockers as Jacques reversed a small package that Janetty had on Raymond. B 7) Red Rooster rolled up Brooklyn Brawler at 6:53. Can't wait until I no longer have to type that result. C 8) Ultimate Warrior beat Rick Rude via DQ as Rude tried to use the ring bell. Bout went 9:45. C ATT: 4,119

1) Dan Spivey beat Bobby Fulton with a power bomb in 7:00. Good opener.  2) Mike Rotunda defeated Brian Pillman as Flyin' Bri missed his top rope move and Captain Mike gave him a suplex to finish him off. * $\frac{1}{4}$ 3) Norman the Lunatic beat Scott Hall as Teddy Long pulled Scott's legs out from under him. Highlight was a fan knocking Long down after his interference. * 4) Dynamic Dudes beat New Zealand Militia in 12:00 as Johnny pinned Jacko. 5) Midnight Express beat Al Green & Ron Simmons in 30 seconds as Eaton finished it with a leg drop off the top rope onto Green. No grade. 6) Great Muta beat Eddie Gilbert in a dragon shi match in 8:00. Good brawl. Gary Hart KO'd Eddie from behind and "Hot Stuff" was counted out.  $\frac{1}{4}$ 7) Sting won the 2 ring battle royal as it came down to him and Scott Steiner. After he threw Steiner out, Norman attacked but he discarded him and went after Teddy Long. Terry Funk then ran out and nailed Sting with the branding iron. Sting couldn't wrestle his match so Funk won on a forfeit. 8) Freebirds and Midnight Express & Dr. Death went to a super double DQ at 18:00. William pressed Gordy at one point. Afterwards, there was a great crowd clearing brawl which had the Dorton faithful scurrying ala Japan.  9) Road Warriors over Samollian Swat Team (Hey, I could be the syndie ring announcer.) by count out as Paul E wouldn't let the SST back in the ring.  10) Lex Luger beat Rick Steamboat in 22:00 with the help of the ropes. Best Luger match Mike has seen out of 40 of them.  ATT: 4,500 best crowd since last years Bash. Maybe they should promo every card as a Bash.

1) Curtis Hughes & JJ Cody beat Korchenko & The Russian Brute in 11:28. Hughes pinned Korchenko after a tackle off the 2nd rope. 2) Bobby Jagers beat Randy Rhodes in a dull 7:00. Randy looks much like Dusty. 3) The Blackharts beat Steve Sawyer & T.C. Carter in 17:00. Blackharts billed from Los Angeles and wear long ear rings, nail polish and a choker around their necks among other interesting items. 4) Akio Sato downed Steve Ray using tights at 15:28. 5) Harley Race was to wrestle Col. DeBeers in his return to Memorial Hall but he showed up in street clothes and told the fans he had surgery once again on his stomach and he wouldn't be able to wrestle. To prove it, he removed the binder and showed the fans the new scar that just started to heal. Sounds pretty gross. Race brought out this huge guy named Butch Masters who wrestled the good Col. Race sat at ringside and smacked DeBeers in the head with a chair allowing Masters to make the pin. 6) Mike George and Bob Orton went to a double DQ for the WWA belt. Sounds like some shooting went on as Orton slammed Mike's head into the guard rail to open him up. George retaliated with a stiff chair shot to Cowboy Bob. ATT: 580

Letters To The Editor

No Holds Barred

I finally got a chance to see "No Holds Barred". It wasn't any worse than I thought it'd be, but that isn't saying much. It was one of those movies that you can easily imagine seeing on cable some Sunday afternoon. The best part was when the film broke, but unfortunately they were able to fix it. Did you notice that there was alot of bath-room humor? That's a very sad comment on what McMahon perceives the average WWF fans' intelligence to be. I thought for a minute that the WWF camera crew was on hand, because after it was over I heard some kid saying, "That was awesome! It's the best movie I've seen yet!" I think that kids' parents should take him to the movies more often.

Helpful Advice

Since the WWF TV tapings aren't exciting, entertaining, or even funny (I think terribly dull are the adjectives I'm searching for), I'd like to give your readers some viewing tips that work for me.

Turn the sound on real loud and treat the program like radio; don't bother watching. Do your house cleaning, take care of any bills and mail, and even make a few phone calls. The hour will fly by painlessly and you'll still be able to keep track of all the once great wrestlers who have been turned into buffoons without having to actually watch their deterioration. You'll also be able to keep up with all the upcoming cards that aren't worth going to.

Ron, I think this is helpful advice, so please pass it on. You only live once and every hour counts.

A Letter From "Dee Recht"

Recently, someone whose ring work I've idolized decided to proposition me, immediately after juicing heavily. Wearing only trunks, boots, and sweat, with blood from his forehead oozing across his nose and cheeks, he announced his intentions and desires. A sense of etiquette reminded me not to barf, but can you imagine being kissed by Freddy Kreuger? Call me old fashioned, but I really do believe a gentleman should bandage his self inflicted head wound before propositioning a lady!

Final Word

To those who sent letters that do not appear in this issue, they will be in #22. Thanks to all who contributed to this edition. Before I go I have a couple of late notes. For those readers in the northeast, the NWA has booked a show for late September in Worcester. I'll give you the exact date next issue. Also, Phil Apollo and Eric Sbraccia (spelled wrong) have a tryout set at Centre Stage Wed. Look for arena reporter Scott Dickinson on the newest ICW tapes in the capacity of third man in the ring. Let me know if you think he needs stronger glasses.

Next time we'll be coming from the Orlando Convention Center and the NWA Great American Bash. Hope everyone enjoys "Glory Days" this Sunday. I'll be going to the legendary Klon's house for the show since this awful cable company I have won't be carrying any pay per views. Until 7/28, be good and if you can't be that, than have fun.

See ya,

Ron
